BALI HATI FOUNDATION THANKS NSW'S ASIA PACIFIC FRIENDSHIP GROUP & ITS SUPPORTERS!

1. Jeff Hunter & Paulette Kay

Overall, this was a wonderful result – enough to purchase six computers. Our sincere thanks to a dedicated event committee that included Sydney Patron of Bali Hati School, APFG founding chairman Jeff Hunter, and MPs Judy Hopwood, Robyn Parker and Darryl McGuire and their staff.

Thanks also to our speakers, Consul General of Indonesia, Pak Sudaryomo, Patron of APFG Indonesia Australia Business Council's John Murray, the Hon. Milton Morris, Jeff and Judy, all those who came, the beautiful Balinese dancers Sisca Hunt and Noonni, and our generous donors listed below with the winners.

The New South Wales Parliament's ASIA PACIFIC FRIENDSHIP GROUP held a Morning Tea in the Strangers Lounge in Parliament House, Sydney, on Wednesday, 27 February 2008, to raise funds for computers for Bali Hati School, Ubud Bali. The event raised approximately $3,930; $1000 of this amount came from Thalaba Community Church near Dungog, and was presented by the Hon. Milton Morris who travelled to Sydney to attend.

The door prize of a charming Balinese statue was donated by Charlotte Maramis, Patron of the Australian Indonesia Association (AIA).

Bali Hati School's Sydney sister school, Glenaeon Rudolf Steiner School, was represented by teacher Katherine Ivkovic, parents and sponsors. Bali Hati School's Patron through the Glenaeon Sister School Program, the Mayor of Willoughby, Councillor Pat Reilly, sent words of encouragement and a welcome to new sister school St Mary's, Star of the Sea, Milton.

With 85 per cent of children at Bali Hati School on some form of scholarship; that is, whose parents pay a third of fees to no fees at all, the continuing annual short fall places a strain on the acquisition and/or updating of educational resources. Events such as the APFG's morning tea, the sponsoring of students and sister school/sister organisation relationships, make a world of difference. Thank you again to everyone involved in the Asia Pacific Friendship Group's morning tea for Bali Hati School.

8. Glenaeon's Julie Gissing, Kat Ivkovic & Rosemary Taylor

9. Guests enjoying Welcome Dance incl. Marilyn Murray, in green- Rainbows for Children [in Bali], Sylvania.

10. Glenaeon's Patrice Bierne & friend Simone
